

To be a domestic first-class and internationally renowned school of economics and management